MARGARET VALENTINE JOINS LADY ANTEBELLUM, ERIC CHURCH, RASCAL FLATTS, SAM HUNT, HUNTER HAYES, AND COUNTRY MUSIC'S TOP PERFORMERS AT THE CAROLINA COUNTRY MUSIC FEST

Country and Americana Crossover Singer/Songwriter, Margaret Valentine, will join a festival line-up featuring country music's biggest headliners, including Lady Antebellum, Rascal Flatts, Eric Church, Big & Rich, Sam Hunt, Hunter Hayes, Cole Swindell, Colt Ford, and others in entertaining country music fans during the four-day festival held June 4th -7th ocean front in Myrtle Beach, SC.

Valentine will perform live Sunday, June 7th at 4:30PM on the ABC 15 WPDE Stage prior to performances that day by Kellie Pickler, Hunter Hayes, and the festival finale by Lady Antebellum.

Margaret is appearing at Carolina Country Music Fest following her recent performances both at Nashville's 23rd annual Tin Pan South Festival, where she appeared as part of the prestigious gathering of country music Singer/Songwriters, including artists Vince Gill, Hillary Scott, and Brandy Clark, and at the Triple Crown Preakness Infield Fest as part of a line-up that included Easton Corbin and Trampled by Turtles.

Those appearances come on the heels of her recent opening performances for top national artists Ed Sheeran, Matt Nathanson, A Great Big World, Ryan Cabrera, Eric Hutchinson, Jamie Cullum, Matchbox 20's Kyle Cook, and others.

Currently writing in Nashville, Valentine is working on her follow-up original EP that includes tracks she has co-written with Isa Machine of Florence + the Machine, and her recent single "Love and Affection" was well received for radio air play. She has performed as a featured artist for several major network radio concerts and as an in-studio on-air guest performer in addition to appearing in front of crowds ranging from 350 to 35,000 at a diverse list of iconic music venues.
